

Żałoba na UW

May 8 - Day of Mourning at the University of Warsaw

In accordance with the decision of Prof. Alojzy Z. Nowak, Rector of the University of Warsaw, May 8 is the Day of Mourning, without classes and work at the University of Warsaw. The university community is shocked by the brutal murder that took place on the Main Campus of the University of Warsaw. Let the Day of Mourning be a time to reflect on the acts of violence and aggression that occur in the academic space.
