

Remembrance plenary

Remembrance, Religion and Post-secularism in Central and Eastern Europe Conference: plenary session

Plenary session: Memory, Religion and Post-secularism in Central and Eastern Europe [1]

Useful information Date of publication: 15-06-2024

Source: Youtube IEiAK UW [2]

Recorded at: Remembrance, Religion and Post-secularism in Central and Eastern Europe Conference

Place: Warsaw

Date: 15-06-2024

Moderator: Stanisław Obirek (The American Studies Center, University of Warsaw)

Małgorzata Głowacka-Grajper (Faculty of Sociology, University of Warsaw)

Barbora Spalová (Charles University)

András Máté Toth (University of Szeged)

Liliya Berezhnaya (Austrian Academy of Sciences)

Juraj Majo (The Institute of Ethnology and Social Anthropology, Slovak Academy of Sciences)

The conference was organized by the Institute of Ethnology and Cultural Anthropology and the Center for Figurative Research of the Faculty of Sociology, University of Warsaw, and the Institute of Archaeology and Ethnology of the Polish Academy of Sciences. The event is funded by the international grant "Post-secular approach to memory processes in Central-Eastern Europe" funded by the Visegrad Fund ID 22230096 and the "Excellence Initiative – Research University" program of the University of Warsaw. Conference partners were the Center for Research on Social Memory (University of Warsaw), the Working Group on Lived Religion (Penn State University), and the KFG "Universalism and Particularism in European Contemporary History" (LMU Munich).

More >> [3]

Related content Remembrance opening speeches [4]

Source URL: <https://etnologia.uw.edu.pl/en/multimedia/remembrance-plenary>

Links

[1] <https://etnologia.uw.edu.pl/en/file/plenary-session-memory-religion-and-post-secularism-central-and-eastern-europe>

[2] <https://youtu.be/mqfB2o21IXs?si=iNm7qtIPaZFpH1Pd>

[3] <https://www.etnologia.uw.edu.pl/aktualnosci/remembrance-religion-0>

[4] <https://etnologia.uw.edu.pl/en/node/6863>